– Ravindra Nath Tagore

"Our women have a very great part to play in the progress of our country as the mental and physical contact of women with life is much more lasting and comprehensive than that of men."

It was rightly said that "the hand that rocks the cradle, rules the world". There is no rocket science to an empowered woman but self-respect, courage, dedication and positivity makes an ordinary woman a super woman.

When our countrymen were struggling and fighting to attain the freedom, the women folk also fought shoulders to shoulders and whole heartedly supported the struggle of freedom, the position of women took favorable turn. The role of women in the freedom struggle cannot be undermined. Vijay Lakshmi Pandit, Aruna Asaf Ali, Sarojini Naidu, all played very crucial and enthusiastic role in the freedom struggle.

In real sense women are creator. All over the world women have proved themselves as vibrant, dynamic, sincere and perfect in many fields. Their efforts and roles towards nation's development have proved that women are in no way inferior to men. They are efficient and perseverant enough to face all challenges, odds, difficulties and obstacles and prove their genius in an Indian, male dominating society. Smt. Indira Gandhi, Sirimao Bhandernaik, Chandrika Kumaratunga, Goldamir, Bachendri Pal, Margaret Thatcher, Supercop Kiran Bedi have proved themselves in all manners better than their male counterpart. These names made both the society and the country proud of them.

The myth the certain fields present age occupy top rank is broken and attained immense success in all the fields such as politics, police, administration, medicine, services etc. Mother Teresa, P.T. Usha, Bachendri Pal, Mrs Kiran Bedi, Mery Com, Mrs Sushma Swaraj, environmentalist and social activist Medha Patekar and

Women constitute approximately 40% population of a nation. If she is given the task for development of country she can make a wonder. She is more dedicated, more sincere, hard -working, more devoted to the cause. Many social evils like; dowry, illiteracy among the females, killing of girl child in the womb, ignoring the hygienic values, etc. can be talked well by the active involvement of the women.

Now today's scenario has changed but the role of women is same in their respective fields. Education and modern women have shed away their inhibitions and fears. They have shown to the world that they are highly equipped to compete personal and professional shapers. They are successful as homemaker as well professionals, academicians, bureaucrats and politicians, officers, TV and Radio news readers, Pilots, Ministers, Anchors, Musicians, Clerk, Prime Ministers, Petrol fillers, Truck and Bus drivers, Scientists and what not. There are veteran MPs and Ministers in the centre and state, Ms Mayawati, Ms Jayalalitha, Ms Mamata Bannerjee, Uma Bharti, Mrs Vijaya Raje Scindhiya have proved to be astute Politicians.

The 73rd and 74th Constitutional Amendment Act passed in 1992 laid upon the women of our country more responsibilities in accelerating the development of the country. These amendments provide 33% reservation for women in the Panchayat Raj. Women elected to Panchayat and Municipal Councils, because of the reservation, have started asserting themselves. Now the women in local governments are taking the basic issues as water, health facilities, family planning etc. more sincerely. Now they can play better role in the development of the operation whether village or city, which in turn to the state and the country as a whole.

Despite all the contributions made by the women in the different spheres, the ground realities tend to differ. A considerable pay disparity exists between both the sexes across all sectors. Even today there are quite a handful of women who have been able to make it to the top for most positions. This is because females are always given a backseat in comparison to their male counterparts.

The empowerment of women by itself cannot place women on equal footings with men. The need of hour is the change of social attitudes towards women. Many social evils, like dowry, illiteracy among women, infanticide of female child, elimination of girl fetus are required to be fully rooted out. What can't be done by a woman? If the men help in the nation building, the women can do much better! Women are no less a creature than the men. Women, undoubtedly, can play a very important role in the betterment of the nation if men give them chance.
